There is still a good deal of speculation about which Thomas Marshall is cited in the records but Russ Williams has sumised that Thomas Marshall "the carpenter" is not the son of the Captain John Marshall who came from Ireland. I agree that he would not be a carpenter as stated in his will if he had such an illustrious ancestor. In most cases in this era this kind of relative would have made him a land owner and a "gentleman". The records are very scarce and cannot prove conclusively any connection to other Marshalls. [Williams p. 347]

It does appear that Thomas Marshall could have been born in the colonies due to parish baptismal records of the right region and time. The notations in the Northhampton County Order Book for 1661-1662, pps. 389-392, birth notations: "A true account of such persons as have bin borne, Baptized, Married and buried in Hungers Parish from ye 25th of March 1661to ye 25th of March Anno 1662."

Thomas Martiall ye sonne of Tho and Mary Martiall - April 2d (1661)

"Fairfax County, Virginia., Order Bk. 1749-1762-,p.246--19 Oct 1752
vs.
Robert Burgess. Dismissed.
(Wonder if the above suit had anything to do with the petition of Robert Boggess to build a Water Grist Mill of Pohick Run in Nov. 1748?)"

In the Fairfax County Road Order Book that you emailed me there was a Robert Boggess that had a Water Grist Mill on Pohick Run.

AS Note: We found some Nesbits who came into VA about the right time and with all the right given names. As it turned out, we could not claim them. Their descendants had been traced and excluded our Nesbits. It doesn't make any difference how Nesbitt is spelled. By the time it got to MO, it was Nesbit, but before that it was spelled many ways. Our Nesbits were in KY by 1775. Thanks for the note about them. You never know - could have been helpful.

Subject: RE: James Nesbett

I'm wondering if James Nesbett of PWC could be a Nesbit? He was one of the Executors for Benjamin Grayson March 27, 1758. He also was one of the people appointed Apr 13 1770 to settle the differences of the heirs of Robert Marshall d. 1754 PWC.

Southern Maryland Origins of Thomas Marshall (1655-1704) Grandfather of the Chief Justice John Marshall

There have been several attempts to unravel the ancestry of Thomas Marshall (1655-1704) of Westmoreland Co. VA.; Grandfather of the Chief Justice John Marshall.

Paxton "Marshall Family" published in 1885, and by his own admission years later, did not know who the ancestors were of Thomas Marshall. Several other noted researchers have come to the same concussion but the Ancestry has remained questionable.
I propose an alternate solution that is solved by looking in ones backyard. In this case, across the Potomac.
It has been proved by court/land records that Paxton mixed the Isle of Wright Marshall's with the Westmoreland Marshall's. It appears the 1635 transportation of 20 year old John Marshall to VA was the one who married Jane McCarthy. From naming conventions, no William or Thomas figures into the Isle of Wight Marshall Family.

Another line of Marshall's lived the in Lancaster Co. VA area on the Rappanhannock River near Leedstown that would have been a better match for the 1655 Thomas Marshall. However, are all those Marshall's are all accounted for with land records, wills & inventories.

The next Marshall line lived on the Eastern Shore in Northampton Co. VA on a line directly East of the entrance of Rappanhannock River. The "GHOTES" Eastern Shore Genealogy Board has documented this Marshall line. Their Thomas Marshall has a will probate date one day before the Thomas Marshall of Westmoreland which make this an attractive link but land records and wills proves this was a different line. Site and partial data as follows:
http://ghotes dot net/nhmarshalls/

{2. Thomas2 Marshall (John1) was born 1626. Thomas died 1704 in Northampton County, Virginia.
He married Mary (N) (wife of Thomas Marshall) about 1655. Mary was born 1638. Mary died before 1704. Mary was his wife's name when he presented his son, Thomas for baptism in 1661. He did not name a wife in his will. Court records of Northampton County show Mary Marshall in May, 1688, aged 50. (Houston & Mihalyka, Colonial Residents, Genealogical Pub. Co., Baltimore MD, 1985, p. 67)
He made a will in Northampton County, Virginia, January 1, 1704. Thomas's will was probated in Northampton County, Virginia, May 30, 1704. Thomas would have been about age 14 when he came to Northampton. His name is probably on that portion of the headright certificate which was destroyed. If indentured with his father to John Wilkins, his seven years coincide with his attaining majority.}

It is far more believable that the Thomas Marshall, a millwright, who oversaw the maintenance of the Mills and tobacco storage houses of Charles County Maryland, living in "Allens Fresh", moved to Virginia abt 1684 and termed "Carpenter" is the one and the same person.
Thomas was living after 1695 per the "Inventory of Col. Nehemiah Blackiston, where Thomas is referred to as "of Virginia". Blackison married a couple daughters of Dr.Thomas Gerrard of St. Clement's Manor, St. Mary's County, who was banished to Westmoreland after Fendall's Rebellion and died 1672. His lands on the Matchotick River in Westmoreland Co. Va were later seated to Richard Lee. Thomas Gerard's daughter Frances married Col John Washington and after her death he married Anne Pope

"Allens Fresh" is located at the head of Wicomico River in Southern Charles County that separates St. Mary's Chaptico Hundred from Charles County's, Newport & William & Mary Parishes. The father of William Marshall was transported by Thomas Weston in 1640 and patented Westbury Manor in St. Georges Hundred, St. Mary's County. William Marshall acted as his attorney on several occasions.
In a line, directly South of Allens Fresh, across the Potomac River is Pope's Creek in Westmoreland Co. Va, This is where John Washington grandfather of George Washington lived and his neighboring families of Fowke, Gerard, Brent, Brown, Brett, Rozier, Chandler, Harrison & Pope all had land in Southern MD

Coincidently, Thomas' move to Virginia was the same time Martha Sherwood of Westmoreland Co. Va. married a Thomas Marshall and her sister Sarah married a David Rozier, Son of Rev John Rozier and nephew of Col. Benjamin Rozer of Charles County, Maryland. Benjamin Rozer and Southern Maryland Marshall's had several close business relationships.

William Marshall died in ~~1773~~ 1673.
William Marshall I Charles county Wills 22Apr1673/Dec 1673

DNA testing shows there is no relationship between the Chief Justice line and the Charles County Md line.

DNA testing for the King George and Lancaster Marshall's has not been done. Looking for a descendant
Bill Howard [SMTP:wehoward@cox dot net]
The other two executors of his will were Thomas Notley (1634-1679) who was the father of Mary Notley who married Benjamin Rozer; and Robert Henley (abt 1617-1684) who married Sarah Bachelor (abt 1627-bef Feb 1683) and whose daughter, Charity married (1) John Courts and (2) John Contee..

His will names the younger children who were born in the 1660's. It is thought that Thomas Marshall and Richard Marshall were also sons of William Marshall either from an earlier marriage or by the Widow Hebden. Thomas Marshall b 1655 would have been one of the first sons of William Marshall & Catherine Payne widow of Thomas Dr. Hebden who died 1649. Thomas married the widow by 1655 according to land records. Thomas' brother Richard born 1669 was a servant for Benjamin Rozer in 1681 according to his Inventory records. Richard married Mary, a daughter of Gerald Brown {who married a daughter of Thomas Allanson}, and died in Charles County, Maryland before 1700.

If Thomas was by an earlier marriage them Richard would have been his son.

The predominant naming conventions of this Southern Maryland family are William, Thomas, Richard & Robert.
The following link contains an interesting incident that helps put some of the players together. The Combs family board is a wealth of information for Southern Maryland records.

http://www.combs-families.org/combs/records/md/charles/land.htm
Look for the paragraph that starts: "The following incident occurred in Oct 1681, about the same time as the above petition. The records reference Phillip Combs and Thomas MARSHALL of Allen's Mill who was apparently involved in Fendell's Rebellion of 1679 (or Lt. Godfrey's planned "break-out" of FENDALL):"

It is believed that Thomas moved to Westmoreland by 1686 as he is a witness in the land transactions of Anne Washington, the daughter of John Washington & Anne Pope who married Francis Wright.

The Will of Thomas Marshall of Westmoreland County, Virginia. (undated) Westmoreland County, is in Deed & Will Book 3, pages 232 - 233 and Probated 31 May 1704. He mentions only his son William Marshall but it is known through land & court records that he had several other kids. Thomas had at least two other children that have been proved besides John Marshall that married Elizabeth Markham & William Marshall that married Elizabeth Williams. There is a Mary who married John Piper, and James who died 1750 murdered by Jonathan Piper. The Mary Iva Marshall that is noted by Paxton to have married Thomas Camp can not be proved through any court or parish record. It appears Thomas Camp married a Marshall of James City Va., Isle of Wight County, Virginia or of King William Co. Va. They were too far South to have any dealings with the Westmoreland Marshall's.

One of other child may have also been born of this marriage. It is believed that the Robert Marshall that married Margaret Luttrell and both died Prince William Co 1754 was a son. He lived near Mason Neck West of Gunston Hall on the Occoquan & Pohick Creeks. Parts of their lands were later seated by Bushrod Washington near Manassas.

William Marshall d1757 son of Thomas Marshall d1704 appears to be the ancestor of the King George County, Virginia and "Berry Plains" Marshall's by the migration up the Rappanhannock River through Farnham & Hanover Parish of now day Richmond County, Essex and Caroline Co. VA. They had land across the river from Port Royal, Caroline Co. Va that was originally Phillip Sherwood's. This family married in to the Roy & Buckner familes.

The Marshall's in Southern Maryland that first arrived in St. Mary's County MD later lived on both sides of the Potomac from Westmoreland, Stafford, Prince William, Fairfax & Loudoun Counties on the Virginia side and Frederick, Prince George's and Charles County on the Maryland Side. This Westward migration continued after the revolution when descendents moved to Mason County Ky & Fayette County Ky.

In a time when only ships where the main way of getting around and as people migrated Westward within river valleys and given the politics of 1650 to 1680, this Thomas looks to have been in the right place.

I've been working on a theory that Thomas Marshall that lived in CC county in the 1670-80's is the same one that died in Westmoreland County, Virginia 1704 and is the Grandfather of the Chief Justice John Marshall.

I've been doing Marshall reseach for several years and until 1999 never knew I had a connection to Marshall Hall. As of late I transcribed the CC Rent rolls and currently waiting for Papenuse of the MD archives to scan and publish the CC patent records so I can enter them into a software package called Deedmapper.

As part of the research process, I found you have to cut down the forest to see the tree. You will find that I've entered all pre rev CC & PG wills and pre 1700 SM wills on my website. Since CC was my focus there are more court and land records for this county.

Well, one day about 6 months ago I said, That's the guy. The Combs website has translated some SM court proceedings that list Thomas Marshall that took care of the mills in the area. The Marshall's at that time live near the head of Wicomicco [Allens Fresh] and had close ties with the Gerrard, Pope, Rozer, Fowke, Fendall, Bayne, Hanson, Harrison, Battin, Penn, Clarke, Allason, Allerton, Posey, Ford, Brent, & Mason familes to name a few. [Thomas would have been a son from an earlier wife of William Marshall and Catherine Payne widow of Thomas Hebden}

I had another "cousin" chasing his roots, which led us from Fairfax, Prince

William, and Stafford back into the Northern Neck VA Counties. After several months of research a field trip was in order to see what was not on the internet and published abstracts.

Last week was spent in the Northern Neck Libraries pulling land, court, chancery, records for Westmoreland, King George, Northumberland, Lancaster, Richmond, Essex, Caroline, & Spotsylvania Counties.

The best record that I have the ties the MD Marshall's to the VA Marshall's is the Thomas Harris Will of 1654

Harris, Thomas, St. Mary's Co 28th March 1654 to wife Anne, dower rights in land during life to only son Thomas, lands at majority. Personalty to be eqully divided between wife and son afsd. Should sd. son Thomas die under age or without issue, estate to be used for maintenance of church or school.

Overseers: Francis Pope, Wm Marshall, Robt. Handley Test: Robt. Robins, Wm Wolfurd.

When you look at the Westmoreland records, Robert Robins' daughter Anne married Basil Bayly. Their daughter Mary married Henry Washington and daughter Anne married Thomas Jr. Marshall. All of Appomattox Cr. just East of US 301 and the Potomac River.

Thomas Marshall was the exec of Samuel Raspin of St. Mary's. Co. Md. in 1681. This is the same Thomas Marshall accused on sedition in 1682 for Fendell's Rebellion of 1679. By 1684 Thoms is referred to as "lately of VA" in Blackison's Inventory in St. Mary's. Since Allens Fresh lies on the county line, I still have not found any further St. Mary's records. There is a 1685 Westmoreland County, Virginia Court record that shows Thomas Marshall continued the probate there. Through land records Thomas moved to land 4-1/2 miles north of Port Royal, Caroline Co. off of Cinqateaqe Cr on his father in laws land - Philip Sherwood. This was the land that was later willed to his son William. This is the same area as the Bristol Furnace on the Rappahannock River on the current King George/Westmoreland county line.

By 1698, Thomas moved back to the Potomac side of Westmoreland and purchased 200 acres from Francis Wright. This was the land that stayed in the family for a couple generations and was contiquous to the Washingtons. The land mentioned as the "forest" were the Choptank Cr. lands 20 miles West of Appomattox Creek and due South of Maryland Pt. on the Potomac.

ps- Bridges creek was named for Bridges Rozier son of the Rev John Rozer who was a brother to Benjamin Rozer.

So where do we go from here.

The Colonial Dames, DAR, University of MD and National Park Service are interested.

Every single Marshall record has been researched in the Northern Neck, Eastern shore, Isle of Wight, Charles, Elizabeth and James City Co, Virginia. They have all been acounted for. After Fendall's rebellion, several families moved to Nomini, Popes, Bridges and "Mattox" Creeks.

I've "spoken" to Linda Reno of St. Mary's and she says I'm in uncharted waters.

The will of William Marshall in 1673 refers "To child(ren) residue of estate equally." That indicates that not all the kids were named in his will. Same as in Thomas Marshall's 1704 Will. Several children have been found through other land and court records.

I would like to have this topic tabled and a formal challenge issued/published to Paxton's 1885 book. Paxton himself admitted he had made a mistake in saying Thomas was the son of John a Sea Capt of Ireland. The Virginia Genealogist in 1905 published the same.

What say ye?

.....(ELIZABETH ROGERS KEENE BANKS).....

....Elizabeth was the daughter of Major John Rogers, a justice in Northumberland County, Virginia, and his wife Ellin.

Elizabeth married first, William Keene, son of Thomas Keene, Jr. and Mary Thorley Keene. They had six children. William died at age 42 in 1684.

After William's death in 1684, Elizabeth remarried. Her second husband was Thomas Banks. They were married December 8, 1687, three years after William Keene's death. Ten years later on September 20, 1697, Thomas Banks died at age 56. Thomas was buried beside Elizabeth's first husband William, near the family home at "Cypress Farm", near present day Lewisetta, Northumberland County, Virginia.

Elizabeth Rogers Keene Banks died in 1720, approximately 77 years old. Her will was dated May 23, 1720, and probated July 20, 1720.

Elizabeth is remembered in her first husband William's Epitaph on his tombstone at Cypress Farm, Cherry Point, Northumberland Co., Va. (About two miles from Lewisetta):

WILLIAM KEENE'S EPITAPH (at Cypress Farm, his plantation):

There is a blank space at the bottom, probably left for an epitaph for Elizabeth. Elizabeth lived another 23 years after her husband Thomas's death in 1697. Elizabeth and Thomas were married 10 years, and had no children.

The gravesites are believed to be near the sight of the early Keene plantation home.

(Elizabeth Rogers Keene Banks died in 1720.....her will was dated May 23, 1720 and probated July 20, 1720, so she died between May and July of 1720, cause of death unknown. She was approximately 77 years old.)

We have seen a lot of data on John Rogers. Here's my bit. I've been working on his daughter Elizabeth and her husband William Keene. Would like input on them.
Neil O'Hara

Descendants of John Rogers

Generation No. 1

1. John1 Rogers was born 1620 in England, and died July 21, 1680 in Northumberland County Virginia. He married (1) Ellin ..... Rogers.
He married (2) Anne ..... Temple Clay Abt. 1668.

Notes for John Rogers:
History Of John Rogers Family by Juanelle Crump
John Rogers was, the first of his family in Virginia, was born about 1620. He was an early settler of Northumberland Countty and in 1653 purchased 250 acres there. In 1654 he patented an additional 50 acres. His patent for these 300 acres was renewed in 1656 and the following year he added another 200 acres. All his patents were renewed in 1663. He was active in affairs of the county, serving as Justice in 1656 and as Sheriff in 1666. He also served in the militia as Captain and later Major. He took part in the Indian War of 1676.

He Married first Ellin, last name unknown, and then Anne_____ Temple Clay, widow of John Temple and Francis Clay. His will was entered for

His children by his first wife Ellen were Elizabeth who married William Keene , William who married Elizabeth Dale, Richard who marreid Jane Presley, Catherine, John Jr. who married Jean _____, and Ellen who married George Heale. Their son Joseph Heale was the first husband of Hannah Bushrod (Crump) .
Elizabeth Rogers Keene, the mother of Hannah Keene, married Thomas Banks of Wiltshire, England, after her first husband died.

On July 20, 1754 he conveyed a calf to each of his children Katherine, Elizabeth and John. I have used this data to estimate their ages.

Children of John Rogers and Ellin Rogers are:
2i.Richard2 Rogers, born Abt. 1640 in Northumberland County Virginia; died August 18, 1697 in Virginia. He married Jane Presley.
3ii.Katherine Rogers, born Abt. 1642 in Northumberland County Virginia.

married (1) William Keene Abt. 1664 in Northumberland County Virginia. She married (2) Thomas Banks December 08, 1687 in Northumberland County,Virginia.

Notes for Elizabeth Rogers:
Elizabeth's will proved March 15, 1722 mentions William , John and Hannah who married John Bushrod.

Notes for William Keene:
At Cypress Poin, an early Keene residence there are two slabs, broken but still legible.
William Keene's stone say's " Here lyeth the body of William Keene, the oldest son of Thomas and Mary Keene Born in Kentin Maryland the 10 th day of March ....1642 who mayrryed Eliz. the daughter of John Rogers Gent. and Ellin his wife of Northumberland Co. in Virginia, by whome he had two sons and four daughters and dyed ye 8 day of Feb. 1684 in ye two and fortieth year of his age."
The Other stone, the stone of Thomas Banks. in addition to details on him , says," he married three wives. the last of which he took to wife Eliz the Relict of of William Keene, dec'd, daughter of John Rogers Gent and Ellin his wife of Northumberland County in Virginia, was marryed the 8 th day of December 1687,"
Elizabeth died in 1722 it is assumed that she is buried with her husbands.

Thomas Keene and Mary Thorley of Northumberland 1650

By Cynthia Rodriguez July 21, 2010 at 02:16:34

Dear Keene Researchers,
My twin and I are thinking outside our normal parameters, and have come up with some hunches about Mary (Thorley), believed wife of Thomas Keene and their possible family connections.

In Mary (Thorley) Keene-Reynor-Broughton's will (2 Jan 1662) she mentions her children by name, and adds a bequest to Elizabeth Perry.We think this Elizabeth is Mary's niece, daughter of her possible sister.Here is what leads us to that thought...

Jane (Thorley) Bashaw-Perry's will names dau. Jane (Bashaw), dau. Margaret (Bashaw), son William (Bashaw), dau. Elizabeth (Perry), son Andrew (Perry). (Inventory signed by Wm Reynolds, Tho Keene, Phil Carpenter, Fran Simmons) on 3 Mar 1650(Jane's second marriage was probably to Edmond Perry c.1642, listed along with Tho Keene as living in Virginia 20 April, 1636 with George Evelin)

[Per the book, Perry of London, there was an Edmund Perry, b. 1599, d. 1655, son of Henry Pery and Richarda Platyr.This Edmund established the Pery family of Limerick and was a brother of William Pery of the Virginia Council (1592-1637). We also know that the Elizabeth Gosnold presumed, yet unproven mother of this Thomas Keene was cousin to Anthony Gosnold & Bartholemew Gosnold, captain of the ship Godspeed, and member of the Virginia Council.

We also see that a Jane Bashaw, [orphan of Giles Bashaw (d. Kent MD c.1640) & Jane (Thorley)] married Abraham Joyce (bef. Feb. 1650 and 20 Sep 1658).They have a dau, Jane Joyce who married John Garner (c. 1679) son of John Garner and Suzanna Keene (dau of Mary (Thorley) & Tho Keene.So, if these women were possible sisters, then the granddaughter of Jane (Thorley) married grandson of Mary (Thorley). Robert K. Headley, the author of Married Well and Often: Marriages of the Northern Neck of Virginia 1649-1800, also indicated Abraham Joyce might have married (2) Jane Bashaw's sister Elizabeth Perry c. 1658, and Elizabeth Perry may have married (2) a Steadham, and he referenced will of John Garner (though I cannot find this will).But, Elizabeth Perry was possibly still single, and thus named, at the writing of Mary Broughton's will, proved in 1662.

April 16, 1661, Thomas Keene son of Thomas Keene, received a bequest from his godfather, Francis Simmons. He was not of age in 1665 for we find on May 5, 1665, 'it is ordered ye division be made of ye belongings of ye orphans of Thomas Keene by Mr Thomas Mathews, Mr Nicholas Owen, John Tingey and George Courtnell being first Sworn by ye justice, and ye part belonging to Thomas Keene ye son of Thomas Keene deceased, be deposited into the hands of John Garner, his guardian.' (North. O.B. 2, p. 414)

Mary Thorley's maiden name is inferred from a will of Edward Thorley of Anne Arundel County, Maryland [Md . Cal. Wills, Vol. 1, p. 212], dated Dec 1678, probated 10 Feb 1678/9, believed to be her brother. In it, he bequests to his "Cousin Thomas Keene".NOTE: At that time, the use of Cousin would refer most likely to a Nephew, just as the term Nephew often referred to a Grandson.This terminology is established by genealogists, derived from common use in family wills where the relation was well documented.Plus it is believed that Thomas Keene moved to Maryland, with his family, to live near this uncle.

Edward Thorley, Mary (Thorley) Keene, and Jane (Thorley) Bashaw might all have been children of Thomas Thorley killed in the massacre at the colony of Jamestown VA in 1622.As well, Thomas Keene might have been a brother, nephew or cousin to Lt Richard Kean killed in the same location of Martin's Hundred.

Thomas Keene sponsored the following head-rights to Maryland, presumably people he knew in England:
Early Virginia Immigrants, 1623-1666;

Virginia Land Grant Bk 3, P 61
Oct. 13, 1653
Granted Thomas Keene 527 acres in the County of Northumberland and abutting Northwest upon the several lands of Ralph Horsly and Edward Coppedge South and South East upon Claughtons Creeke and North East upon Cherry Poynt the said Land due unto the said Thomas Keene by and for the transportation of 11 persons in this Colony. Headrights were Thomas Orley (twice), Archibald Read, Thomas Watson, Margaret Browne, John Earle and wife, Thomas Keene,(Mary Simmons is John Earle's wife.) Mary Keene and William Keene. This Patent was belated recorded after the death of Thomas Keene and renewed March 18, 1662.

So, in looking for connections of the people who were headrights of Thomas Keene, we traced back to England, and found the following:
Richard Symonds married Elnor Keane, 30 Jan 1613, Berkshire England:Book Burials vol. 3, Register of MarriagesBerkshire England 1538-1837.(Elnor Keane may be a relative of Thomas Keene of Thrandeston, presumed father of Thomas Keene immigrant to MD and VA)

Giles Symonds of Hillsley (former owner of Woddesfford Castle, West Stafford co. Dorset, elder brother of Thomas, as castle named in his estate d. 22 Dec 1612, bequeathed to relic Ann, then mentioned in litigation 1614 as belonging to their son Thomas, ref in Eng Families of New England Immigrants, Vol II, pg.160), married Anne Browne, sister of Sir John Browne (she was dau of Tamasine Warham and John Browne (Esquire) and they have the following children listed below: Robert, Ann, Edward, & Thomas.

Robert Symonds, counselor at law, married Elizabeth Rogers, of Hadnipp, dau. Of Richard Rogers of Bristow.Their 3 known children are listed below:
----Matthew Simmons b. 1619
----Francis Simmons
----Anne Symonds
Ann Simmons m. Richard Sankey
Edward Simmons married Eliz Petty
Thomas Simmons married Margaret Middleton (dau of Robert Middleton) and had a daughter:
----Mary Symonds b. 1618 Gloucestershire who was first wife of (Sir) John Earle b. 1612, married in Sumerset England, before leaving across the sea.

NOTE: Giles Symonds and his descendants coat (of arms), viz., (distinguishing him from other Symonds of Dorsett, mistakenly documented as kin, but since unequivocally disproved.)
Argent, a bend engrailed between two fire falls proper, and in 1596 Dethick, Garter King-of-Arms, granted to Giles Symonds as a crest:A Moor's arm tied with a scarf, in the hand a fire ball. In this grant Giles is described as son of Thomas Symonds of West Stafford, co. Dorsett.

As a final point, I want to list an accounting of the Keene's family connection to Welholme manor of Thrandeston, from an on-line book of Suffolk holdings, keeping in mind that Mary (Thorley) Keene married (2) Henry Reynor (also a very early immigrant). Please, be mindful that Davy's research, housed in the British Museum Library archives, is NOT infallible:
Thrandeston, 390.
Manor of Welholme's.
In 1507 Margaret Woodhall died seised of this manor, when it passed to her son and heir, Richard Woodhall. It seems then to have gone in fourths, and we find four fines levied of the manor between 1546 and 1550. The first was by Robert Kene against Robert Berkeley,' the second was by Robert Kene against Richard Breyne, and others,'" the third was by John Lane against Richard Poderych," the fourth was in 1550 by Robert Kene against Anne Reyner, widow."

The manor, according to Davy, subsequently vested in Edmund Bedingfield, and from him passed to his son and heir, Thomas Bedingfield, who died in 1590, when it passed to his son and heir, Henry Bedingfield; but Davy also more correctly makes Robert Keene, of Thrandeston, lord, and states that in 1558 and in another place that he died in 1565.'^ The manor then, Davy states, passed to Robert's son and heir, John Keene.

This may be so, but in 1590 Thomas Keene would appear to have had the lordship, for this year we meet with a fine levied of the manor against him by William Duncan'* ; and seven years later another fine levied against the said Thomas Keene by W. Kellam.'^ John Keene was dead by 1593.

By the opening of the 17th century, the manor had vested in the Smith family.'* Richard Smith, of Carlton Road, Norfolk, 5th son of Richard Smith, of Bacton, and Elizabeth his wife, daughter of John...

p. 320Arms of Keene or Kene: Az. a talbot passant Or, on a chief dancette Arg., 3 cross crosslets Sa. ; (or) Or, a chevron engrailed Gu. betw. 3 cinquefoils Az. on a chief of the 2nd a lion passant guardant, Arg.

Anyone want to pipe in here?We would love some new dialogue.We still have more documentation and new ideas to post at a later date regarding more Keene connections.

- On October 8, 1687, Elizabeth Keene was awarded 20 shillings from Andrew Grigg, commander of the ship â€œSwan of Belfastâ€ because he caused a pine tree to be fallen on her land and made into a main mast for his ship without her consent. (NCV Order Book 4, P 392)

Burial of William Keene

William Keene is buried on â€œCypress Farmâ€ in Northumberland County, Virginia. This site is said to be near the site of the William Keene residence and lies on the left of the road leading from the main highway to Lewisetta at the head of of Garnerâ€™s Creek. Garnerâ€™s Creek was named for John Garner who owned land across the creek from William Keene. [Is this the same John Garner who married William Keeneâ€™s sister, Susanna Keene?]

Over his grave is a horizontal slab of heavy marble which was probably made in England. This marble slab is broken , but the inscription can still be read.

PREFACE

This is the first volume of a proposed two-volume set of cemetery records of Pulaski County, Kentucky. There are 175 cemeteries in this first book, and many more still to be recorded in our second volume, so that upon completion of the two, we hope to have listed every marked grave in the county.

Several years of planning and preparation have gone into this work, and the Historical Society is well aware of the risks we are incurring by attempting to record thousands of names and dates correctly. For any mistakes found in the book we apologize in advance. Mimeograph was used in the final preparation of this book to facilitate additions and correct mistakes as we found them.

The Historical Society wishes to express gratitude to the many organizations and individuals who assisted and encouraged us in this effort - so many, in fact, that we decided not to try to list them by name for fear of omitting an important helper. To all of these we wish to extend a warm "thank you"!

We also wish to invite anyone to contact us if they know of a cemetery (and especially, any small grave plot) that does not appear in this first volume. Material is already being collected for our second book, but we want to be sure that every grave in the county is included. As many of the larger cemeteries appear in this book, we must now locate every small plot.

The Historical Society is aware that a complete listing of the graves in Pulaski County is a must if we are to successfully realize our goal of preserving the history and lore of this area. It seems fitting that during this year (1976) that a book of this type should be - and is - dedicated to the nation's two-hundreth birthday.

OTHER FORTS ON THE CLINCH

NEW GARDEN STATION

In the beautiful New Garden section of Russell Co., VA, on the south side of the Clinch was another very early fort called the New Garden Station. This is another the historians have passed by and no historical marker denotes its existence, even the people now living in the area are unaware that a fort ever existed there. This section of Russell Co. was settled very early, in fact as early as 1769, and upon whose land and when the fort was built is not known.

Certainly it can be proven that the fort stood upon Thompson's Creek, from this entry in Washington Co., VA Land Entry Book, dated August 20, 1780, which reads:

We, the Commissioners, etc...do certify that Israel Christian is entitled to 100 acres of land near the New Garden Fort, on the north side of Clinch River, on the waters of Thompson's Creek.

The New Garden Station may have been built as early as 1774 and manned by the settlers in proximity to it. Certainly there is no militia list for it at this early date, and neither is it listed as one of the garrisoned forts under Captain Daniel Smith's command at this time.

Settlers of the New Garden section would have been at the complete mercy of the Shawnee entering through the Sandy war passes, and sanctuary in either Elk Garden or Castlewood fort would have been miles away. Considering these conditions and the very early settlement of the area it seems that an early fort would have been a most urgent necessity of the settlers.

Both Andrew Lynam and George Huffaker in their pension application say they served at this fort under a Lieutenant James Leeper in the year 1777, with Huffaker saying that when he served there Alexander Smith and a Mr. Jackson lived there.

Robert Sinclair says in his pension claim that he served there in the fall of 1776 or 1777 under Captain William Norton. These statements not only prove the existence of the fort, but also that it did exist at an early date.

George William Settle in an unpublished history of Russell County entitled "A Brief History of the Earliest Generations and Events, Etc., In the Eastern Part of Russell Co., VA", page 53, states:

About one half mile north of Oaks Garage, or around 300 yards up the ridge from Robert Green's was an Indian fort where twenty-five or thirty people lived for protection against the Indians. Some old man told me they would go down to the big spring below the road, eat and go back to the fort, but never without the men along with their rifles.

The above traditional statement may actually pinpoint the location of the New Garden Fort.

Washington County, Va. Petition: December 9, I785. To the Honourable,the Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Delegates: The Petition of sundry inhabitants of Clinch River, Mocason Creek, Powel's Valley and others, citizens of Washington County humbly represent: That your Petitioners are situated from the line of Montgomery as it crosses near the course of Clinch River, down the same eighty miles thence to the extreme settlement of Powel's Valley fourty more.

The greatest proportion of your petitioners have to travel from twenty five miles and some eighty or an hundred; moreover are generally interrupted by Clinch Mountain and the north branch of Holstein River; the former affording very difficult passes; the latter much danger and difficulty in crossing it in spring and after considerable rains; continuous to its southern bank, a chain of hills almost as difficult as Clinch Mountain; so that great difficulty arises to your Petitioners not only in attending Courts, but Courts Martial. And from the extent of schasm between our small settlements make it exceeding difficult to arrange companies without subjecting some to travel I5 and 20 miles to private mustery. There are two difficulties in the militia law that principally affect your Petitioners. These are evils small indeed compared to the feelings we constantly undergo when obliged to leave our helpless families exposed at so very great distance to obey the laws of our country; And however evident the danger may appear to us will not certainly on our failure of duty plead our excuse. Circumstance alone is sufficient to claim the human respect of the Legislature to remove the grievance. We therefore pray your Honourable House will take our case into consideration and divide the county. We further pray a line may be fixed along Clinch Mountain to the Carolina line; or with the line at present dividing this County into two regiments to the aforesaid Carolina line; thence with the said line to Cumberland Mountain including that existing County between Cumberland Mountain and Montgomery line and Clinch Mountain, or the aforesaid regimental line for the new county and southeast of the said Clinch Mountain remain Washington County; and we your Petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray;

INTRODUCTION

The Act for the first census to be taken was passed at the second session of the First Congress and was signed by President Washington on March 1,1790.

This census was to include free white males over sixteen years of age,free white males under sixteen years of age,free white females,all other free persons and slaves.

These lists for Virginia,as well as several other states,were destroyed when the British burnt Washington during the War of 1812 so an effort was made to locate duplicates but there seemed to be only some copies of State enumerations extant.

My effort has been to make use of the first personal property tax lists for those counties then extant in order to supply this deficiency. The lists are not absolutely conclusive since some men did not pay taxes if they were indigent,exempt for physicial disabilities or if they held certain political or military offices.However,in some instances we find that some of the latter paid on some of their personalty.

Ordinarily it would have seemed wiser to have published the tax payers as they occurred in the original lists but in all but ten of the counties they have already been letter grouped by the enumerators so that any value as to neighbors has been destroyed.

Fayette and Lincoln Counties of the present Kentucky have been included,then being in Virginia, but the lists for Jefferson County having been removed to Kentucky could not be included as I am only using those lists in our State Archives.

The first tax assesments were ordered to be made in the year 1782 but some of them are not to be found so they were used for the extant counties,not included in the first census,at the first date to be found: Accomac for the year 1787; Augusta for the year 1782; Bedford for the year 1782; Berkeley for the year 1782;Botetourt for 1784; Brunswick for 1782; Buckingham for the year 1782; Campbell County for 1785; Caroline for 1783;Charles City for 1783; Culpeper County for 1783; Dinwiddie County for the year 1782; Elizabeth City for the year 1782; Fauquier County for the year 1782; Fayette,for the year 1787; Goochland County for 1782; Hardy County for the year 1786;Henrico County for the year 1782; Henry County for 1782; James City County for the year 1782; King George County for the year 1782; King & QueenCounty 1782; King William County 1782; Lincoln,1787; Louisa County year 1782; Loudon County 1782; Lunenburg County 1782; Montgomery County 1782; Northampton County 1782; Prince George County 1782; Prince William County 1782; Rockbridge County 1782;Southampton County 1782; Spotsylvania,1782; Washington County 1782; Westmoreland County 1783; York County 1784.
